

Friday's Child Adoption Services, Inc.

A Virginia Licensed Child Placing Agency

CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

Clients' files are kept strictly confidential except when information is provided to referral agencies, foreign countries, courts, to federal, state and local governmental agencies and as otherwise indicated or requested by the client to disseminate information. Friday's Child Adoption Services, Inc. will keep client files and information confidential in accordance with the law, policy and ethical standards of practice.

During the course of an adoption process, clients may learn identifying, personal information about children and their biological parents and family members. During the adoption process and prior to finalization of an adoption, Friday's Child Adoption Services, Inc. expects all clients to keep this personal identifying information confidential. We discourage the sharing of details beyond your immediate family and especially discourage the sharing of personal, identifying information via social media and the internet.

By signing below, you agree to maintain confidentiality of any information shared with you about a child and their biological family members to the best of your ability during the adoption process and prior to finalization. Friday's Child Adoption Services, Inc. agrees to also maintain confidentiality as appropriate and indicated by law, policy and ethical standards while also ensuring that our clients have access to the information necessary to make informed decisions throughout the adoption process.
